NEW YORK, May 3.—With such twin events as the fourteenth running of the rich Metropolitan handicap, with $10,000 added, and the opening of the finest race course in America, tomorrow promises to be a memorable day in the annals of American racing. Fully 50,000 people are expected to throng the course when the handicap candidates are called to the post and the initial meeting of the West Chester Racing Association, in its new home, Belmont Park, is fairly under way. The Metropolitan will be run as the fourth race on the card.

The inauguration of Belmont Park tomorrow is looked forward to as mark-Other speakers, other speakers who were introduced and addressed the audience, were: Dr. Draper, commissioner of schools of New York; Dr. S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College: Dr. Hale, assistant secretary of agriculture, and Rev. Mr. Crother, the author of "The Gentle Reader." This great course, which supercedes Morris Park' in the Eastern calendar, has been built at an outlay of nearly $3,000,000 and is declared to be the
